"My favorite workout is dancing with my husband."

Why Miami Beach Chamber's Educational Foundation is so close her heart:

My parents are my role models. They both have been supporters of charitable and communal endeavors throughout their lives. They have filled many key leadership positions and provided substantial support for numerous organizations, in particular, educational institutions. I aspire to emulate them. Thus, my support of the programs established by the Miami Beach Chamber's Educational Foundation. I am honored to have served for the past two years as co-chair of the Miami Beach Chamber of Commerce's Annual Gala, with Sherry Kaplan Roberts. I am proud that the proceeds from the annual Miami Beach Chamber Dinner Gala Program Book and Silent Auction help fund education initiatives on Miami Beach.

Robin Jacobs

Philanthropist/Entrepreneur

Identified by family and friends as a serial connector, Robin Jacobs doesn't have an off button, and her dedication is not hard to spot. Her extensive resume, educational background and long list of charity committees and board positions speak for themselves. But what we find most endearing about Jacobs is that she balances it all effortlessly and still finds time to focus on her incredible family. As a case in point, she still gushes about her husband, renowned Miami plastic surgeon Dr. Baruch Jacobs, like a newlywed even after 33 years and four beautiful children.

FAVORITE SPA INDULGENCE: The Hydra-Facial. It cleans, exfoliates, peels, extracts and infuses the skin with moisture, all in one hour. I leave glowing! Of course I do this at Miami Beach Cosmetic and Plastic Surgery Center.
